WAR MOVE IN RUSSIA TOLD BY CHURCHILL

LONDON, July 30.—(By the Associated Press.)—In the House of Commons, Winston Churchill, secretary of war, explained the government's Russian policy, which the Liberals and labor unionists both have been strongly attacking.

"It would be a great mistake to condemn the policy of the allied powers in regard to this movement," said Colonel Churchill. "It was an essential war measure. In the war against Germany, the allies decided to occupy Archangel and Murmansk. It has achieved greater results than ever before, even if it did not achieve all the results expected at the time we landed at Archangel.

"When the allies landed at Archangel, German divisions were passing from the North Russian government front at the rate of six per month, and that movement was stopped. Early in March the cabinet decided that Archangel and Murmansk should be evacuated before our winter set in, and directed the war office to act accordingly, and also to send whatever reinforcements that might be necessary for safeguarding the withdrawal.

"It may seem easy for those at home to say 'Let us get out, let us cut our loss, but to those on the spot it was a matter of great and painful difficulty to sever ties and quit the scene. I had earnestly hoped and trusted it would be possible for the North Russian government to have a separate line after our departure, but after the requirements imposed on Admiral Kolchak I do not feel that we can indulge in that hope any longer."

Colonel Churchill said Admiral Kolchak's and General Denikin's armies hardly existed a year ago, but that now they are considerable in numbers and were engaging 300,000 Bolsheviks, which was more than twice the strength of their military forces. He added that Kolchak was continuing to retreat, but that Denikin was making formidable advances.

Colonel Churchill contended that failure to support Admiral Kolchak and General Denikin would have allowed the Bolsheviks to grow in strength which would have fatally deranged the balance in Europe. He added that in a few months there would not be a single British soldier in Russia, but, on the other hand, we are continuing a powerful contribution of munitions to Denikin.

Doctors Killed When Steering Gear Breaks

ALBANY, N. Y., July 30.—Dr. Fred D. Myers of Albany and Dr. William L. Stevens of Saratoga Springs were instantly killed here today when the steering gear of their automobile broke and the machine plunged into a tree. John Murphy of Albany was seriously injured internally.

DESIDENT WOMEN

A prominent writer claims that "women are naturally desident," but often mental depression may be attributed to an abnormal condition of the system, which expresses itself in nervousness, lack of energy, headache, sleeplessness, and consequent desident. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound goes to the root of this trouble, it gives tone and strength to the system and restores women to a normal, healthy condition.—Advertisement.

Barrows Is Hissed by Socialists Feeling High at Soviet Debate

BERKELEY, July 30.—With hundreds turned away and more than a thousand persons crowding the High School Auditorium, Bolshevism was debated last night in Berkeley.

So intense was the interest in the subject that Mrs. Elvina Beals, chairman of the meeting, announced that a second gathering would be arranged to provide for a further discussion of the problem.

Despite the marked feeling shown by both proponents and opponents of the soviet form of government, the meeting was orderly. Hisse greeted Dr. David P. Barrows, former officer in the United States army in Siberia, when he arose to the defense of Admiral Kolchak and his republicanism. Every mention of the Russian leader's name brought derision from the Socialistic element of the audience.

DECLARATION OF VIOLENCE.

"What is government in Russia today is a narrow dictatorship based upon violence," was a definition of the soviet which brought a laugh of derision from the socialist portion of the audience.

"You can decide this if you like but what did you have to say during the war?" was the reply flung back by the speaker and which was greeted with cheers and a demonstration lasting several seconds from hundreds of former soldiers and university students.

"It is the policy of Berkeley champion the cause of the Reds in Russia they must assume the responsibility for their cause," declared Dr. Barrows. "You can rest assured that the people of the nation will make them assume the withdrawal."

"We will! We will!" came the answer from individuals in the audience.

OPPOSES RECOGNITION.

"Then stand up and take your place," declared Dr. Barrows. "Either range yourself with Lenin or Trotsky or stand with the moral forces of the world. You are in the world. Your decision will be awaited."

Dr. Barrows occupied the platform as the only speaker for the negative side of the question. "Respectful of the Socialist party in the world, I recognize that American troops be withdrawn immediately."

Opposing him were James H. Dolson of San Francisco and Rev. Robert Whitaker of Los Gatos. Outside the high school building 500 people unable to gain admittance held an impromptu gathering on the city hall lawn with Mayor Louis Bartlett of Berkeley called from the main meeting to preside as chairman. J. E. Schneider, socialist editor, delivered the principal address.

In the high school the meeting was called to order by Mrs. Beals at 8 o'clock with the debate continuing until 10:30. Dolson was the first speaker.

ALL PEOPLE ARE LYAL.

"The Bolsheviks did everything in their power to maintain a front against Germany," declared Dolson. "Bolshevism stands today despite the fact that 1,125,000 men from every nation in the world are fighting against it. The iron that binds the Bolsheviks together is stronger today than ever before. Bolshevism has so endeared itself to the hearts and minds of the Russians that the people will die by millions before they will surrender the principles of the soviet government."

Dolson in rebuttal of Dr. Barrows' argument declared that the hood-carrying and the laborer know more of economic conditions in Russia today than the "man of culture." "Unless the leaders of culture in our universities cease talking and get down to study the real phases of the social unrest there will be revolution facing the United States as well as in Russia," he declared. Dolson's talk was largely given over to definition of the soviet, explaining that bands of workers, known as "komsomols," have joined in the big soviet which now reigns in the storm-torn nation. Dr. Barrows began his argument against recognition of the soviet government by defending Admiral Kolchak, denunciation of whom was voiced by the preceding speaker.

DETESTATION OF SOVIETS.

"The character ascribed to Kolchak and the Siberian government is a complete misrepresentation," he declared. "Touching upon the socialist plea that the soviet government be recognized, the university professor said:

"It is not the usual practice of nations to recognize revolutionary forms of government while determined and organized resistance exists."

Denouncing the soviet form of government as a "dictatorship," Dr. Barrows declared it was a rule of a small group of men, not laws.

"Lenin admits that he has set up a dictatorship," said Dr. Barrows. "The Bolsheviks are not the representatives of the Russians he represents," said the speaker. "He is governing without opposition because the opposition has either been destroyed or is so weak that it is not a factor."

Dr. Barrows supplemented his talk with the reading of extracts from the reports of Red Cross investigators sent to the United States by the "Reds."

"There are no trials in Russia," he said after citing numerous cases of murder which he laid at the doors of the Bolsheviks. "The Bolsheviks in soviet Russia. Revolutionary tribunals have been set up and the sentences are summary. There is no appeal. Bolshevism I attack as unjust, inhuman, and a crime against the world."

"We all recognize that well-being is not equitably distributed, but to adjust conditions a nation or state must proceed according to law through the existing power. It must not be done in a headless, violent way but in a way controlled by law and by convincing the majority that it ought to be done."

"We should only recognize the soviet government of Russia if it can assist us and the states we have fought with in realizing the aims of the war. The Russian government has long been supported by the enemy. The Russians were the first to make peace with the enemy and to this day their government is operating and supported by the enemy."

MAINTAINING RAILROADS.

"Constitutionalism is essential to man. We want a government in Russia consistent with American principles. There are no American troops in European Russia. In Siberia there are 8,000 Americans, there wholly for the reason of maintaining a railway which the Bolsheviks are in no position to maintain."

Dr. Barrows appealed to the Socialists of the country to stand by the "moral" forces of the world.

"Socialists today no longer stand together," he declared. "They are rent by discord within themselves. Do the Socialists of Berkeley stand for the soviet government? If so, do then let us know it. Stand up and take your places. We await your decision."

"It could have been known any time where the Socialists of Berkeley stand," was the reply of Rev. Whitaker to Dr. Barrows as he took the platform. "There never was any doubt. We Americans are in no position to talk of atrocities with events such as are going on in Chicago tonight."

REVOLT OF PEOPLE SEEN.

"If the issue is between constitutionalism and man, I am for man every time. The day is coming when we will not be apologizing for the Bolsheviks but for the fact that men of culture in our nation did not recognize the deepest democratic movement of the day. Nothing in the world is contributing so much to the unrest in every land as the Al-Hed treatment of Russia. The revolution which is sweeping the world tonight is not of the middle class but of the common people. If the Al-Hed treatment of Russia is continued, they will stir up a spirit of revolution in every land in the world. Labor knows what it wants and labor is going to have it."

"If the Al-Hed governments are convinced that the Bolsheviks do not represent the best interests of the country the wise thing to do is to let the Russians find out for themselves. Every American boy who goes to death in Russia is going by the high-handed power of an administration that sent him there without any authority."

No decision was called for on the debate last night. Generous applause marked both sides of the argument.

In support of the socialist cause several hundred men and women crossed from San Francisco to attend the meeting, while Dr. Barrows' forces were flanked by hundreds of summer session students at the University of California and returned soldiers in civilian dress. Dr. Benjamin Ide Wheeler with Mrs. Wheeler occupied a place on the platform, while every available inch of seating and standing place was taken with hundreds turned away from the gathering.

A third gathering devoted to a discussion of Bolshevism was held last night in Unity Hall, where the debate was originally scheduled. Persons unable to obtain admission at the high school returned to Unity Hall where socialist speakers presented arguments in favor of the soviet form of government. More than 200 persons, it is estimated, made up the audiences at the overflow gatherings.

SEVERE TALK BY SCHNEIDER.

J. E. Schneider, socialist editor of Oakland, is accused of making seditious remarks while addressing the gathering in front of the Berkeley city hall last night, according to a complaint made to the police by A. H. Talbot, 2312 Claremont Avenue, a member of the audience.

Talbot asked police investigation of alleged remarks against the government as voiced by the socialist speaker. No arrests were made.

Says Eat Less to Put on Flesh And Get Strong

Thin, weak, nervous wrecks, who want to put on flesh, strong and fine, can almost invariably do so in two or three weeks by taking with each meal a grain of the greatest French nerve and blood builder known among druggists here as "Blood-Ton Phosphate." It is often thin as a rail simply because the food they eat is not assimilated. Blood-Ton Phosphate, by strengthening the nervous system and enriching the blood, promotes the normal process of digestion upon which the processes of assimilation and metabolism depend. Very little bit of nourishment from the food that you eat. If you don't feel well or are too thin, go to The Owl Drug Co. or any other good drug store and get "Blood-Ton Phosphate." It costs only 50 cents a week—and it does as directed. Eat less, chew your food thoroughly, and if at the end of three weeks you don't feel stronger and better than you have for months, if your eyes are bright and your nerves steady; if you don't sleep better, and your vim, vigor, endurance and vitality are more than doubled, the druggist will return your money for the asking and Blood-Ton Phosphate will cost you nothing.—Advertisement.

TAKE CAR AND ROB STATION

Stealing an automobile, leaving behind a sarcastic note to its owner to "keep his machine locked in future, two bandits, using the machine to make a getaway, held up the Mott Garage, 3764 Telegraph Avenue, obtaining $100 in cash, two watches, and two gallons of gasoline, with which they drove away in the stolen machine.

The note, left for Dr. M. L. Bell when his automobile was stolen last night at Thirteenth and Franklin streets, was signed by the initials "E. T. R." Garage attendants say that the machine that visited the garage was identical with the description of the stolen car. The numbers proved the identification, according to the police. They believe that the "Oil Station" bandits, who have been robbing service stations in the past few months, were responsible.

Dr. Bell, whose offices are in the Delger building, missed his car last night when he returned from a theater. Lying in the spot where his car had been parked, weighted down with a small bit of metal was the note, written on a rough piece of paper.

"You ought to have a lock on your car, you fool," read the note. "Keep it locked in future."

The two bandits arrived at the garage early this morning, driving the machine in and calling for five gallons of gasoline. They then left the car, and the attendants filled the tank, registered at the gasoline stand, and took two inner tubes lying beside it, and, backing the car out, disappeared in the direction of the business section of Oakland. The men wore no masks. They are described as of youthful appearance.

The oil station robberies were all perpetrated in the same manner, according to the police, with stolen cars being used for "getaways." The cars usually were found abandoned afterward. That Dr. Bell's car will probably be found in the same manner is believed from the premise in the note, in which he was advised him to "keep it locked in future," thus intimating that he will get it back shortly.

ARMY MAN FREED BY WIFE'S NOTE

When Mrs. Jessie Ettinger, New York actress, discovered that she did not love Lieutenant Ulva Ettinger, shortly after his marriage, she was honest enough to write to him which he was stationed in San Domingo and tell him so. She wrote in the letter that the holidays were coming on and that she was lonely. Ettinger lived at 3129 Lewiston Avenue, in Berkeley.

Mrs. Julia Lucas was awarded an interlocutory decree of divorce today from Arthur Ettinger, a salesman, 10-1-10, after she was found to have been in possession of the two children and $90 a month alimony. The 8-year-old boy, Gayle, told on the witness stand of his father's relations with another woman in Fresno and Mrs. Lucas testified that he rebelled against the conventions and expressed his wish to be free. He contested the suit, charging his wife with unfaithfulness to him.

According to Ettinger's account of the romance, they met in New York in September, 1917. Afterward they both came to Oakland and attended the University of California for a time. When the war broke out he joined the Marines and was soon called to go away. She went back to New York to her profession, and there discovered, as she wrote, that she was lonely. Ettinger lived at 3129 Lewiston Avenue, in Berkeley.

FORD WITNESS TESTIFIES OF ANARCHY AIMS

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS. LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

ST. CLEMENS, Mich., July 30.—There are two leading schools of anarchy, the individualist and the communist, according to Professor William A. Dunning of Columbia University, testifying in Henry Ford's defense today in the trial against the Chicago Daily Tribune. Professor Dunning, who appeared yesterday as a witness for the plaintiff, was cross-examined today by Elliott G. Stevenson, senior counsel for the defendant.

Professor Dunning remarked that there were many anarchists who could not read.

"Neither can Mr. Ford," said Attorney Stevenson.

"Oh, no, Mr. Stevenson, that is unfair," said Alfred Lucking, senior counsel for Ford. At the same moment Attorney Stevenson also for Ford, was on his feet and everybody was talking at once.

"Your honor, we object," said Murphy. "Mr. Ford was suffering from hay fever."

"Mr. Ford said he could not read, did not he?" Stevenson's voice rose above the others.

"We insist that he be stricken out," persisted Murphy. Judge Tucker ended the confusion by instructing the Tribune lawyer to reserve his comment for final argument.

Stevenson added much to show that anarchists believe their doctrines would improve the lot of the masses.

"Counsel is trying to make out that the Tribune was highly complimentary in calling Mr. Ford an anarchist," commented Attorney Lucking.

"We are showing that we did not call him a bomb thrower," said Stevenson. Then he asked the witness:

"The desire of anarchists to benefit mankind is shared by most Americans, is not it?"

"I think so."

"The Christians do that?"

"Yes, and heathens and pagans and infidels and atheists."

"What heathens and pagans are you talking about in the United States?"

"Oh, lots of them."

"Where?"

"There must be a lot of them in Detroit, although I have never stopped there."

"You meet them in New York?"

"Lots of them."

"Also in Columbia University?"

"A pagan or two."

"A lot of men were discharged from Columbia University for disloyalty?"

"They are not there now."

Planes Ordered Burned, Says Flyer Efforts Made to Keep Fire Secret

NEW YORK, July 30.—The subcommittee of the House of Representatives headed by Royal C. Johnson of South Dakota, which has been investigating crucifixes practiced upon prisoners in American prison camps abroad, turned its attention here today to the destruction of American army property in France under the direction of army officers. The first incident taken up was the disposition of 100 airplanes at Colombes-Les-Belles.

The first witness, Paul J. Lockwood of Stamford, Conn., formerly a lieutenant of aviation in the first pursuit group, testified that upon returning to America he met a number of his colleagues in Garden City who told him the planes had been damaged and then burned. The engines were chopped out, the wings and his interiors told him, only the fuselages in the Garden City were saved. The planes then were thrown into a pile and burned. While the fire was in progress armed guards patrolled the vicinity to prevent photographs being taken, according to the witness, who estimated that the salvaged parts were worth about "fifteen cents each." Some of the machines, he had been told had begun flown only twenty minutes.

Alfred T. Horner, who was a first sergeant in the first pursuit group, told the committee that while he was at Colombes-Les-Belles in May, were badly injured and their two sons suffered less serious injuries.

ARMY MAN KILLED IN AUTO WRECK

BLUERIDGE, Pa., July 30.—Brigadier-General Arthur E. Donnelly, who commands the 69th infantry brigade of the 35th division, was killed near here early today when his automobile plunged down a steep road in the Blue Ridge mountains and overturned. A broken brake is thought to have been the cause.

Mrs. Donnelly and her daughter were badly injured and their two sons suffered less serious injuries.

MASSACRE IN ARMENIA BY TURKS, THREAT

PARIS, July 30.—Major Greene, representative of Herbert Hoover, American telegraphed to the American officials today that the Turks are threatening a great massacre in the event the British troops will draw from Asia Minor and that the country is in a panic.

It is understood by the American authorities that the withdrawal of the British is virtually certain. Leaving Armenia at the mercy of the Turks. The United States has declared by American officials, must make up her mind about accepting a mandatory for Armenia at once to prevent the slaughter of thousands of innocents.

The Americans may come to a compromise on the disposition of Thrace, if the peace conference agreed to include western Thrace and Constantinople under one mandate, which now seems probable.

Major Greene was sent into Armenia by the interallied food relief committee, of which Herbert Hoover is the head, to give succor to the starving population.

GERMAN PLAN IN 1917 WAS TO HOLD LIEGE

COPENHAGEN, Monday, July 28. (By The Associated Press).—Control of Belgium and possession of the city of Liege was the determination of the German high command in 1914. Chancellor Michaelis drew up a tentative plan for peace negotiations, incorporating in this the demand for Liege and adjacent territory and the economic union of Belgium with Germany.

Field Marshal von Hindenburg was opposed to the giving up of Liege. He would hear of no talk of indemnities, nor would he indicate Germany's intention to the enemy.

The German attitude was disclosed by declarations read by Premier Bauer before the Weimar assembly today when the peace overtures to Germany alleged to have been made by Great Britain and France through the Vatican in August, 1917, were again the subject of discussion.

ATTACK CONSERVATIVES.

Premier Bauer followed Dr. Mueller. He attacked the conservatives and declared that the former emperor would certainly be brought to trial and proved guilty of many things.

"The re-introduction of a monarchy in Germany is impossible," he said. "I will read you two declarations, one from Chancellor Michaelis to Von Hindenburg, dated September 12, 1917, and the other, dated September 15, 1917, containing Von Hindenburg's reply and accompanied by a memorandum from Von Ludendorff. You will then understand why no decisive reply could be given regarding the reinstatement of Belgium."

Dr. Bauer then read the Michaelis note as follows:

"In accordance with the wishes of the high command I draw up the following basis for peace negotiations, for the protection of our commerce. We demand the city of Liege and adjacent territory. Belgium must be intimately and economically united with Germany. When Belgium has fulfilled all our demands for security of economic connection, which will take several years after the first peace negotiations, we consider that military measures can then be abolished. Consequently we only ask to hold Liege provisionally as a factor of security."

VON HINDENBURG'S REPLY.

Von Hindenburg replied as follows:

"We are in possession of Liege and unlimited master of the situation. We can take the measures necessary. I therefore do not believe that we should give up Liege. The hardships which will be suffered by our neighbors are the inevitable result of the war under present conditions. There can be no indemnities; neither can we indicate our intentions to foreign countries."

The premier was interrupted by many of the members who, leaping to their feet, shouted: "Murderers! Traitors! Political radicals!"

Oregon Highway to Be Finished in 1920

FLU DELIRIUM IS WEDDING ALIBI SAN FRANCISCO NEWS MAN IN FOUR COURT ACTIONS

SAN FRANCISCO, July 28.—Many are the suits of Charles E. Vaughn of Toledo.

Chief of Police White is the target of one of them. Vaughn has sued in Superior court to recover from the chief a diamond ring valued at $3400; a watch fob valued at $1200; two certified checks, totaling $17,000, and in addition asks $5000 damages.

Vaughn's wife filed an action demanding that her husband pay her $25,000 which she alleges he borrowed from her. A counter suit was recorded by Vaughn denying the debt and declaring that his wife owes him $19,500.

Vaughn is held on a charge of forging his wife's name to a draft. He was arrested last week at the home of Mrs. Alice Fisher, 840 Hyde street, in whose name he had opened an account with the First Federal Trust company for $17,500.

DR. NORTHCOTT ASKS NEW TRIAL IN REED CASE.

A 400-page transcript has been filed by his attorney, Frank Mannix. Misconduct by District Attorney Franklin Stuart of San Mateo county in the prosecution of the trial is charged; alleged errors of the trial are cited and, based on technicalities.

Dr. Northcott is at liberty on $5000 bail. He is also out on bail on the charge of murdering Eleanor Anderson. Both women died from criminal operations. When the Anderson case comes up August 23, Attorney Mannix will file

CUT RED TAPE AND WON WAR MEDAL.

"Lafayette, we are here," chorused the crowd at the Third street station when Colonel Charles E. Stanton came home yesterday. It was Stanton who expressed America's feelings in that phrase in the time of the Paris speech at the tomb of Lafayette.

Colonel Stanton brings back a Distinguished Service Medal, file won by cutting red tape. There might have been a court-martial, but instead, Colonel Stanton got the medal. When money was necessary to keep the American expeditionary force going, and there was no authority to pay it, Colonel Stanton paid it just the same, a mere $170,000,000.

The colonel is known as the "Father of the Family Club" of San Francisco and there were many of its leading members at the station to welcome him back. He will be chief zone finance officer at the San Francisco station. Colonel Stanton went to France with Pershing as head of the paymaster's department.

"FLU" DELIRIUM IS BLAMED FOR MARRIAGE.

The influenza did strange things. Monday there was the case of a woman who sued for annulment of marriage on the ground that she was delirious with the "flu" when she married. Now there's another woman with the same plea, but her situation is complicated by the fact that she had another perfectly legal husband all the time. Mrs. Katherine Christensen, 1050 Bush street, told Superior Judge Bernard J. Flood that her mind was a blank when she married Michael S. Doherty, a soldier, at San Rafael, November 22, 1918. Doherty thought her a widow. She had known him but a week. Her husband was out of town on a business trip. She has two small children. Bigamy was charged against Mrs. Christensen but when she told the judge about the "flu" he dismissed this and granted an annulment.

OIL MEDIATORS SUSPEND HEARING

SAN FRANCISCO, July 30.—Refusal of the operators to discuss hours of work and a closed shop has resulted in a suspension of the hearing of the President's mediation commission here into wage and other demands made by oil field employees in Kern, Fresno, Los Angeles and Orange counties, representatives of the operators announced here today.

The demand that only wages be discussed was taken under advisement by the commission, which announced that it expected to answer the demand at a session in Santa Barbara on Thursday, August 7.

"If the commission insists on eight hours of work and the closed shop he made issues in this investigation we will refuse to become a party to their deliberations," the operators announced. They said they were willing to discuss demands of the men that the basic wage be raised from $4 to $5.

The presence of a delegation of the oil field workers in the city was announced by Colonel J. L. Spangler of Bullfont, Pa., the chairman of the committee. Colonel Spangler declined to announce the purpose of their visit and the operators said that no conference with this delegation had been planned.

GERMANS TAKE WAR BLAME TO GET IN UNION

AMSTERDAM, Tuesday, July 23. (By The Associated Press).—The work of the International Trades Union Congress today was hindered by a protracted discussion in committee of the old international organization regarding the German declaration of the stand of German trades unionists during the war.

The Germans generally maintained an unrepentant attitude until Samuel Compers, president of the American Federation of Labor, told them plainly that if it were continued, it would be impossible for workers of other countries to retain relations with them in the future. The German delegates thereupon somewhat relaxed.

The committee on its return reported that the statement of Herr Sassenbach (German Socialist) be incorporated in full; that the regrets expressed therein be registered; that the German delegation confirm frankly and openly the spirit of Sassenbach's declaration; that if the avowal be frank, open and satisfactory, the conference will proceed to the order of the day; that if unrepentant, freedom of action be reserved.

Against all expectations, the congress adopted the report without debate after Sassenbach had in a few words confirmed the German declaration.

The Congress then proceeded to form a new international.

The position of the various nations in the voting places the British and Americans in an unfair situation. They represent together more than 8,000,000 workers among the 17,000,000 workers represented at the Congress, but have only nine votes of the total of 27 which may be cast on motions.

The main points of the resolution of Sassenbach follow:

The German trades unions always recognized that Germany acted wrongly in Belgium and always condemned atrocities committed. German occupation of Belgium and the deportation of Belgians was not done with the consent of the German workers; that the attitude of the German workers at the outbreak and during the war was dictated by the position of Germany; it was their conviction that Germany was fighting a defensive war. The German workers always had been opponents of war and armaments and never gave assent to the government's imperialism.

The German workers recognize that the workers of other countries cannot appreciate or understand the several actions of the German workers during the war but these actions

News of the AIRMEN

SACRAMENTO OFFICIALS URGE AIR MAIL SERVICE.

SACRAMENTO, July 30.—A resolution urging the postmaster-general to establish an aerial mail service between Sacramento and San Francisco has been adopted by the city commission. The resolution also requested officials of San Francisco to cooperate in the effort to have the service established.

TRANSCONTINENTAL ARMY PLANE FLIGHT DELAYED.

Through an accident to the airplane of Lieutenant Charles Rugh of Berkeley, son of Professor C. E. Rugh of the University of California, the transcontinental army airplane trip that started from Houston, Texas, was delayed today at the San Francisco Presidio. Extra parts for Rugh's plane had to be ordered from Mather Field, for the Berkeley lieutenant, alighting at the Presidio in the fog, damaged the under gearing of his plane. The repairs are expected to be done by tonight.

The four giant airships that started the trip from Houston have so far flown 2000 miles without other mishap.

They will leave for Reno and Salt Lake City and will then visit the northwest states and return to the Presidio. After that they will leave for the East. They plan to follow the new Woodrow Wilson aerial highway, recently mapped out by the air service.

The planes stopped at Fresno Monday night. In the party are: First Lieutenant Clifford C. Nutt, flight commander; First Lieutenant Edward W. Killgore, Second Lieutenant Charles V. Rugh and Erik H. Nelson, and Sergeants John H. Campbell, Albert T. Vierra, George W. Anderson and John J. Kelly.

They were forced on them by the severe struggle waged by the German nation.

FIREMAN EATS 40 TROUT AND WINS FAT RACE

The old story that a man can't run fast on a full meal doesn't go with Battalion Chief Sam Short of the Oakland fire department—that is, if forty trout can be considered a full meal. Sam is either an athletic marvel or the exception that proves a rule, according to the tale of his prowess that developed today in the first department.

Sam's brother George, who owns a ranch in the north, went fishing the other day and sent down forty piscatorial beauties. The chief had them cooked up for breakfast and then tied him to the Irish picnic at Shell Mound Park. Here, despite the encumbrance of the aquarium, he won the fat men's race. The prize arrived today, and disclosed the story.

'MOTHER, SON,' OPERATE AS ROBBER CREW

In the report to Central Station that a mother and her son have formed a combination to rob Oakland homes, one of the most unusual police cases in Oakland's history was today revealed.

Successful robberies were laid at the doors of the "mother and son," who left not a trace behind that might lead to their apprehension by police inspectors.

Mrs. Nellie Judson, 1355 Tenth street, reported to the police she had been victimized by the mother and son, who, she said, had stolen several expensive rings from her sitting room.

Another victim of the pair was Mrs. T. M. Strapp, 413 15th street. She complained to the police that she had rented a youth and woman, purporting to be his mother, a room. They gave the name "Seven." The youth borrowed a $5 bill from Mrs. Strapp and started out for a grocery store. In the meantime the "mother" also left the house. After an hour's wait, Mrs. Strapp started an investigation. She found the youth had not visited the grocery store and also found that a $20 gold piece was missing from her home.

The couple called at the house of Mrs. Judson in answer to an advertisement offering rooms for rent. Mrs. Judson made her visitors comfortable in the sitting room and went out for a few seconds.

When she returned, her prospective roomers had disappeared. They took with them the most expensive jewelry articles in the house.

A full description of both was furnished the police by Mrs. Judson. She said the woman was about 35 years of age, was about 22 years old and could easily have passed for his accomplice's son. They were well dressed.

Acting on the theory that the pair are setting out on a campaign to rob Oakland home owners, the police inspectors' department has started on a rigid investigation.

Search for Missing Girls Statewide
FEDMONT, July 30.—Circulars asking policemen all over the state to join in a search for Leola Lavenston and Eva Church, both 13 years old, who disappeared from local homes where they were employed as domestics, were issued this morning by Chief of Police Benton P. Becker.

The two girls were on probation for truancy from a reform school, according to Chief Becker. They disappeared at the same time and left most of their baggage behind them. They are believed to have been in company of two men late Saturday night.

OREGON FUGITIVE TAKEN
SALEM, Ore., July 30.—C. R. Dudley, wanted here on an indictment returned more than three years ago charging him with embezzlement of $500, from a business partner, has been arrested in Los Angeles and will be returned to Salem for trial.

EASTBAY SOCIETY NEWS

MRS. THOMPSON PRICE, who today is hostess at her home in Berkeley, honoring Miss Kathryn Hubbard, whose marriage to Louis Switzer will be celebrated in August.

Jessica D. Nahl To Be Zipporah In "Miriam"

"Miriam," the biblical drama which is to be presented on the evenings of August 1 and 2 at the Greek theater by Miss Ruth St. Denis and associate artists, is holding the undivided attention of society and lovers of the classic drama in the Bay region. From a local standpoint the play presents more than a usual share of interest as many of the participants are well-known actors among the well-known home artists. The second woman's part and one of the most important in the entire drama is to be taken by Mrs. Jessica D. Nahl, talented teacher and instructor of dramatic art at Mills College. Mrs. Nahl is to assume the role of "Zipporah," wife of "Moses," and is to take the leading speaking part with Miss Ruth St. Denis opposite Ted Shawn, who is to enact "Moses."

The presentation of the play will mark an unprecedented event at the Greek theater, considering the fact that never before has a production been given which has offered a chance for the combining of so many of the allied arts. Dancing, singing of the classic drama, and drama and drama go hand in hand, being interwoven in an ingenious play that will offer a vehicle for some of the most artistic work ever done in the Bay region. The play, written by Constance Smiley, is a well-known play of London, contains all of the wonder of poetry, and lovers of Swinburne will readily recognize the poet's influence in the play. The play, written by Constance Smiley, is a well-known play of London, contains all of the wonder of poetry, and lovers of Swinburne will readily recognize the poet's influence in the play.

Regular heroes of the world war are hard to distinguish these days, according to Colonel Benjamin Alford, Army Western Department adjutant. Everyone—almost—is walking about with service stripes, honor medals, foreign crosses of valor, service ribbons and divisional insignia that they don't deserve, according to the Presidio officer. And the worst of it, says Alford, nothing can be done about it.

Army goods stores are doing a remarkable business in all of the bay cities, claims the officer, and much of this business has to do with the marks of distinction which a discharged soldier wears.

Men entitled to wear the decorations and insignia are refusing to do so, say army officers. They are ashamed of their service badges—their medals and whatnots—because so many men, not entitled to them, have purchased them somewhere and persist in going everywhere with them. Belgian and French crosses have been known to sell in these respective countries for a comparatively low figure. The charge is made that many men, coming back to this country from foreign service, bought these medals and are now trading in this country on false distinction.

Army officers say that the newly-formed American Legion, the soldiers' society corresponding to the Civil War Grand Army of the Republic, is one force capable of suppressing the violations.

PARTY FOR BRIDE-ELECT
Miss Gladys Hurling, who is to wed Sterling Adams Porter in August, is being the incentive for a number of parties given by her friends in the bay region.

Miss Roberta Holmes will preside at an informal tea at her home across the bay in her honor, when a group of intimate friends of the honoree will be assembled. Among them will be:

Mrs. Mary Lloyd Goepfert, Allan Morrow.

Misses Marjorie Porter, Marguerite Eastwood, Madeline Sanford, Genevieve Spader, Pauline Finell.

Miss Pauline Finell is to entertain at her San Francisco home next week in honor of Miss Gladys Hurling. Miss Marguerite Eastwood plans to give a party in the middle of August for the popular bride-elect.

TEA HONORING MISS HUBBARD
Miss Kathryn Hubbard, who is to be married to Louis Switzer early in August, was the honor guest at an informal afternoon tea given today by Mrs. Thompson Price at her home in Berkeley. A group of intimate friends of the honoree, including several brides-elect of the Eastbay, were assembled at the Price home which was festive with pink hydrangeas and ferns. Among them were:

Mrs. Herman Reiz, Robert Clark, I. Gilmore, Ross Mahon, James Holbrook, Charles Trabert, Carroll Smith.

Misses Dorothy Clark, Edith Farley, Janet Knox, Julia Galpin, Evelyn Stonestor.

Miss Hubbard is to be honored at a bridge tea on the Saturday, Tuesday, August 5, when Miss Dorothy Clark, also a bride-elect, will preside as hostess.

The Switzer-Hubbard wedding is to take place early in August at one of the Berkeley churches.

CHICAGO VISITOR IS ENTERTAINED
Honoring Miss Louise Countess of Chicago, who is the honor guest of Mr. and Mrs. George Wellington Emmons in Alameda, Mrs. John Parker is planning to entertain at an informal dinner party at her home on Park street Saturday. Miss Countess arrived a week ago from the East to spend a short while with friends at her old home, and has been entertained every day at an informal gathering. She shared honors yesterday with Mrs. Patricia O'Connor Henshaw at a tea given by Mrs. Delger Trowbridge at the home of her mother, Mrs. John Beckwith.

The Countess's family formerly lived in Alameda and have many friends in the bay section, where there are always extended a cordial welcome.

RETIRED MILLS RETURNS FROM FRANCE
Lieutenant Cecil Mills, who is to wed Miss Dorothy Clark early in August, arrived in Oakland Saturday, and is awaiting his discharge from the field artillery. Lieutenant Mills recently returned from France, where he saw active service with the American expeditionary forces.

Cards will be sent out in a few days announcing the date of the Mills-Clark wedding, which will be an event of the coming month.

BRIDE-ELECT TO BE ENTERTAINED
In honor of Miss Edith Farley of Claremont and Miss Doris K. Nordman, two brides-elect, Miss Violet Nordman is to entertain at a tea on the afternoon of August 7 at her home in Claremont. Cards have been received from a large number of friends about the bay, and plans are under way to make the affair one of the smartest pre-nuptial events of the summer.

The wedding of Miss Edith Farley and Mr. Nordman is to be an event of the early November, after which the couple will leave for the south.

Lumber Piles Up for Big Drydock Material Covers Several Acres

Acres of lumber and growing like magic!

Mr. and Mrs. Wood and all the little chips off the block!

Spread on the ground, the lumber would cover—quite a space.

The lumber is to build two new marine railways and a floating drydock, the largest drydock of its kind on the coast at the shipyard of the Moore Shipbuilding company in Oakland. Two and a half million dollars will be spent.

Of the 7,000,000 feet of lumber to be used in this work, 3,189,424 feet have arrived and been discharged and stacked in the west end of the shipyard. The lumber is mostly Douglas fir and is being cut at the mills of the McCormack Lumber Company in Oregon, the shipments coming from the state, where they will make their home in Los Angeles, the home of the bridge-building. Following the tea Miss Farley is planning to go to the south for a fortnight's visit with relatives and friends.

Announcement has been made of the wedding of Miss Dorothy Green, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Green of San Antonio, Tex., to Franklin Chapman of Seattle, which took place earlier in the summer at Manila. The marriage took place at the home of Captain and Mrs. Snyder Rowlands at whose home the bride was visiting, with Dean J. L. Parsons of the Episcopal Cathedral reading the service.

The bride went to the Philippines last December to visit the Rowlands, and there met Mr. Chapman, just out of the army, and who was engaged in business at the islands. The bride is well known in the bay, and the bridegroom is a graduate of the University of Washington. They will make their home in Manila.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Strong, who are leaving early in August for the Orient, were the honor guests at an informal dinner party given last night by Miss Gladys Hurling at the home of the hostess in Berkeley, when covers were laid for a number of personal friends of the honoree. This afternoon Mrs. Strong is presiding at a bridge tea at her Berkeley home in honor of Mrs. Strong.

Deny Showing Lewd Motion Pictures
"Not guilty" was the plea entered by the manager of the Globe theater, 1225 Twenty-third street, and his two alleged accomplices in the exhibition of a lewd motion picture film after the theater's regular performance, in Police Judge George Samuel's court today.

The cases were set for examination August 7. The men are Harry Thomas, manager; Earl Attley, alleged distributor for the objectionable film; and Walter T. Gray, moving picture operator at the theater.

Gray is at liberty under $100 bail. Thomas and Attley were released on $500 bail each.

The showing of indecent motion pictures is punishable under the penal code by a jail sentence of six months. Mrs. Harry Thomas is owner of the theater.

Put Milk-Price Blame On Weinstock-Merritt
SAN FRANCISCO, July 30.—The jury in the trial of thirteen members of the Associated Milk Producers, who were indicted on charges of restraint of trade, was excused by Superior Judge M. J. Roche today to permit an argument by Attorney James J. Brennan, representing the majority of the defendants, for an instructed verdict of not guilty. Attorney Brennan argued that the "Producers' Association" had nothing to do with the fixing of milk prices in violation of the Cartwright act, but on the contrary had merely accepted the price fixed first by State Market Director Harris Weinstock and later by the federal food administrator, Ralph P. Merritt.

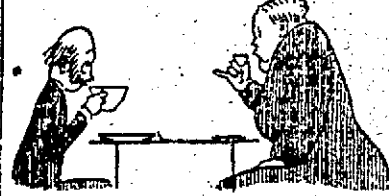

Make Raincoats Of Balloon Cloth
ST. LOUIS, Mo., July 30.—Half a million yards of cotton balloon cloth to Chicago—will be manufactured into raincoats by a St. Louis concern which bought the cloth at auction from the government.

The auction price of the 33-inch sea-island cloth purchased by the government for manufacturing balloons was announced at approximately $25.000.

Jitney Pilot Robbed; Three Suspects Held
SAN FRANCISCO, July 30.—Following the holdup of John Meyer, a jitney driver, by three men who chartered his machine at Columbus avenue and Green street this morning and robbed him while en route to Third and Mission streets, the following were arrested and identified by Meyer:

A. George, Andrew Merlo and Arthur Cavannan.

Why all this Precaution?

JUST wherein lies the reason for the use of vegetable preparations for infants and children?

Why are any but vegetable preparations unsafe for infants and children?

Why are Syrups, Cordials and Drops condemned by all Physicians and most laymen?

Why has the Government placed a ban on all preparations containing, among other poisonous drugs, Opium in its variously prepared forms and pleasing tastes, and under its innumerable names?

These are questions that every Mother will do well to inquire about.

Any Physician will recommend the keeping of Fletcher's Castoria in the house for the common ailments of infants and children.

Children Cry For Fletcher's CASTORIA

The False and the True.

Advertising by the use of large space, the expenditure of huge sums of money have placed on the market, have put in your home, perhaps, many articles that today have been discarded, as you will readily admit.

Do you recall anything that has more modestly appealed to the public than has Fletcher's Castoria: modest in all its claims, pleading at all times—and truthfully—for our babies?

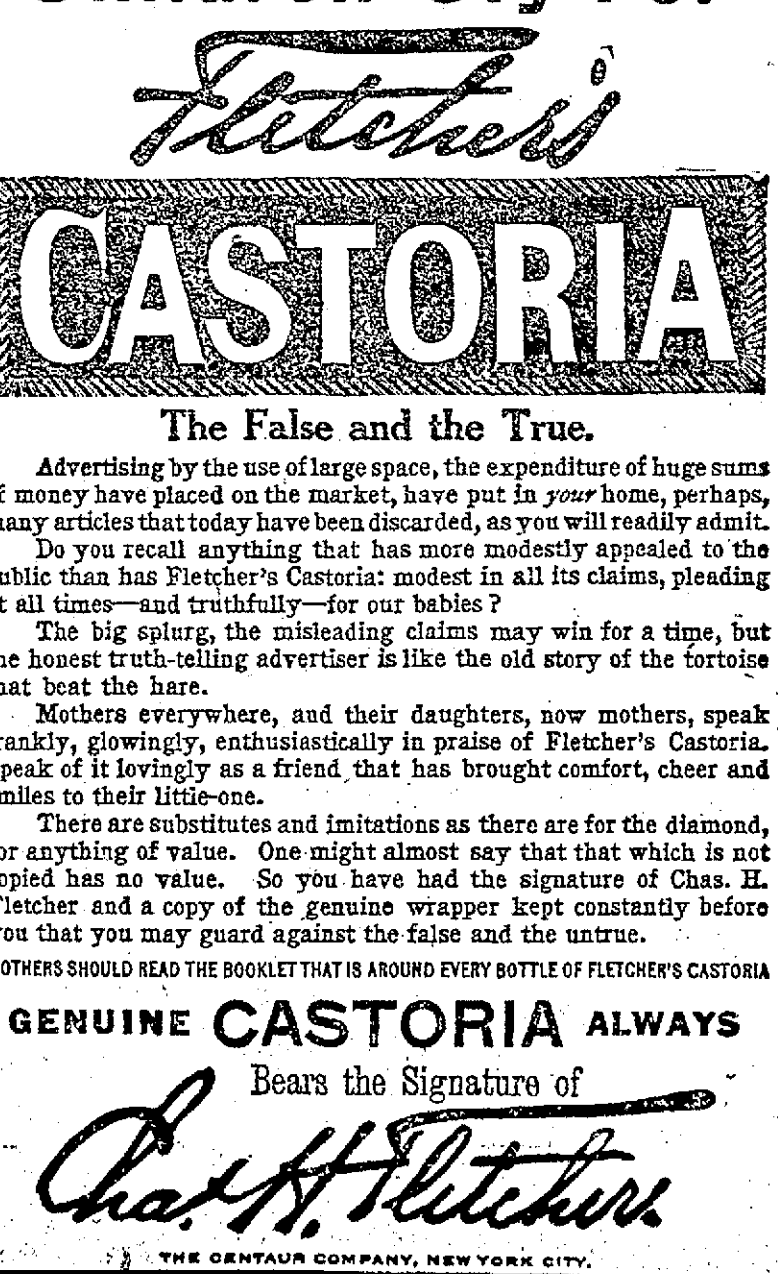

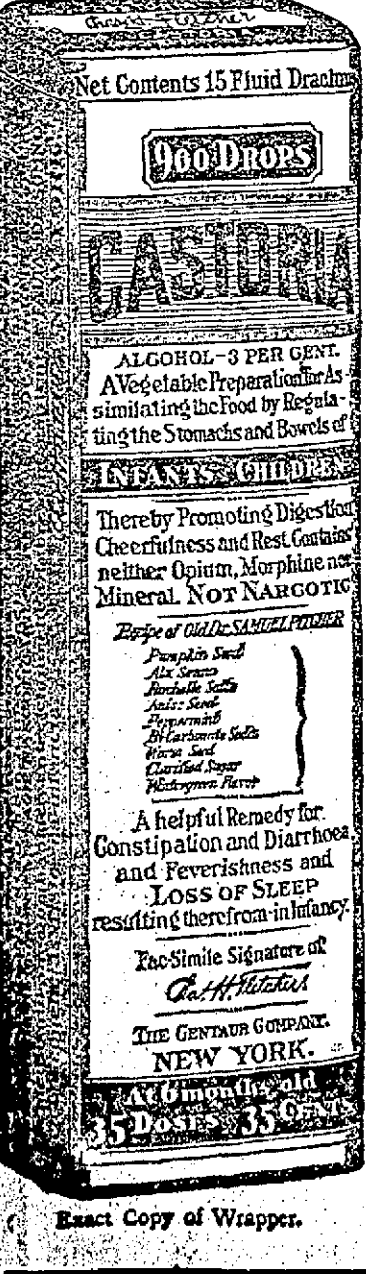

The big splash, the misleading claims may win for a time, but the honest truth-telling advertiser is like the old story of the tortoise that beat the hare.

Mothers everywhere, and their daughters, now mothers, speak frankly, glowingly, enthusiastically in praise of Fletcher's Castoria. Speak of it lovingly as a friend that has brought comfort, cheer and smiles to their little one.

There are substitutes and imitations as there are for the diamond, for anything of value. One might almost say that that which is not copied has no value. So you have had the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher and a copy of the genuine wrapper kept constantly before you that you may guard against the false and the untrue.

LEMON JUICE TAKES OFF TAN

Girls! Make bleaching lotion if skin is sunburned, tanned or freckled.

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of Orchard White, shake well, and you have a quartet pint of the best skin-sunburn and tan lotion and complexion beautifier, at very, very small cost.

Your grocer has the lemons and any drug store or toilet counter will supply three ounces of Orchard White for a few cents. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day and see how freckles, sunburn, windburn and tan disappear and how clear, soft and white the skin becomes. Yes! It is harmless—Advertisement.

To Keep Skin Fresh and Fine These Heated Days

It would be much better for the skin if little cream, powder or rouge were used during the heated term. Mixed with perspiration, dust and grime, these things are anything but beautifying. Ordinary medicated wax will do more for the complexion, and without giving an oily, streaked, spotted or nasty appearance, that is the ideal application for the season. As it not only keeps the pores clean, but daily removes particles of scurf skin which have been soiled by dirt or weather. By constantly keeping the complexion clear, white, satiny, it does more toward perpetuating a youthful countenance than any of the arts or artifices commonly employed. One ounce of mercurized wax, obtainable at drug stores, will completely renovate the worst complexion. It is applied at night like cold cream and washed off in the morning. There's nothing better for tanned, freckled or reddened skins—Advertisement.

Put Milk-Price Blame On Weinstock-Merritt

SAN FRANCISCO, July 30.—The jury in the trial of thirteen members of the Associated Milk Producers, who were indicted on charges of restraint of trade, was excused by Superior Judge M. J. Roche today to permit an argument by Attorney James J. Brennan, representing the majority of the defendants, for an instructed verdict of not guilty. Attorney Brennan argued that the "Producers' Association" had nothing to do with the fixing of milk prices in violation of the Cartwright act, but on the contrary had merely accepted the price fixed first by State Market Director Harris Weinstock and later by the federal food administrator, Ralph P. Merritt.

LEADS WIRE TO TRIBUNE

WASHINGTON, July 30.—No "radical defects" were found in the present court-martial system of the army by the special army board appointed by Secretary of War Baker to make an investigation of the war department announced today. The board, which consists of Major General F. J. Kernan, regular army, and John F. O'Han, National Guard, and Lieutenant Colonel Hugh W. Ogden, judge advocate, submitted its report to Secretary Baker.

Secretary Baker will submit the report to Congress, along with his thirty-one recommendations. The report recommended changes in thirty articles of war, and proposed one new article.

The report of the board attributes the "great part of the just criticism of the court-martial system, not to any inherent faults of the system, but to the inexperienced personnel which was called on to administer at a time of stress and when the great thing was to get 4,000,000 men quickly into shape for the fighting line."

LOVE AND DUTY CLASH IN STIRRING SCREEN ROMANCE

Robert Warwick in "Secret Service" all week at the Kinema.

In the compelling drama, "Secret Service," this week at the Kinema, Robert Warwick is enacting a big role in the stirring play of the same name written and produced by William Gillette, is regarded as one of the masterpieces of the art, and the picture carries all the elements of love, suspense, stirring action and surprise which made the play a phenomenal success.

"Secret Service" holds the interest of the spectator as few pictures have ever done before. Every episode, whether a tense scene or a little Southern pastoral, is handled masterfully and even the finest little details are presented with the beauty which characterizes the production as a whole.

A most capable cast of players supports Robert Warwick. Wanda Hawley and Theodora Roberts, well known for their work with Cecil De Mille, are included.

In "His Foot, Saw Foot" this week at the Kinema, Ray portrays in his delightful quaint and humorous fashion a country boy with high ideals and little experience.

Named by his grandfather for his hero, Ulysses S. Grant, Ray resolves to do nothing to bring discredit upon the name he bears, and to always follow his grandfather's advice—"stay away from them there play actresses."

What happens when in the role of a musician he takes part in an amateur show and actually meets one of the profession he has sworn to eschew is just one laugh after another.—Advertisement.

DUTCH GUIANA GOLD DEPOSITS LURE TIFFANY

NEW YORK, July 30.—Sailing with $1,000,000 worth of machinery and party of fifty mining engineers and workers, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Tiffany, prominent in New York society, have left for Dutch Guiana to work a gold deposit Mr. Tiffany said he discovered on the Moroni river eighteen years ago.

The secret of the discovery has been kept quiet, pending the obtaining of a concession from the Dutch government. Tiffany said he discovered for 100 miles along the river, Mr. Tiffany said.

HOPI SNAKE FETE IN ARIZONA SOON

"The most solemn moment of the entire performance has arrived. Beginning a low, chanting song, the priest reaches his hand into one of the bags and draws forth as many snakes as he possibly can. The song grows louder, the shaking of the priest's hands in the hands of the priest increases in violence as the chief plunges the writhing mass of reptiles into the basin. Drawing them out, he hurls them violently upon the sand fields, where they begin to crawl to and fro."

This is a description of a mild part of the Hopi Snake dance, the time for which is approaching. When the dancers place the snakes in their mouths the exercise begins to get interesting. Many excursions are planned this year to the Hopi reservation in Eastern Arizona, at snake dance time, between August 19 and 25.

ARCH CRIMINAL EX-JUDGE'S SON

SAN LUIS OBISPO, July 30.—Edward Langdon, charged with the murder of David Morehouse, a night watchman, is in reality Seth Burt, son of J. S. Burt of Burlingame, a former judge, according to Sheriff Charles J. Taylor. Taylor says Langdon admitted his real name after close examination of one of his collar tags revealed the name "Burt" on the inside of the necktie.

Burt, or Langdon, is charged with having shot and killed Morehouse in Paso Robles when the watchman disturbed him in the act of stealing an automobile. The youth, according to Sheriff Taylor, has admitted the theft of 330 automobiles.

"I would doubt this prodigious record," said Taylor, "if this man did not show absolute wizardry as a man expert and so far as I have been able to check back everything he has told me about the number of cars he has stolen has been true."

That Burt may have some knowledge of the circumstances surrounding the death of Reuben Fogel, alleged broker, who was beaten to death in Los Angeles last fall, was the assertion of Sheriff Taylor, who said he had trapped the youth into admitting he was a car thief to make public at this time.

The first record of any crime committed by Burt, according to Taylor, was when the youth, with a companion, abducted Jesse, a 15-year-old girl, from in front of the Ashland, Ore., high school several months ago.

PORTLAND, Ore., July 30.—Bhawan Singh, Hindu revolutionist, is en route to San Francisco today from McNeil's island, having been released from the federal prison a few days ago.

Singh, while in Portland last night, emphatically denied that he acted as a German agent in fomenting the German-Hindu plot in India. Singh claims he was convicted, though not guilty, by "English influence and English money."

He says England spent $2,500,000 to send him to prison. Singh admits being a Hindu revolutionist, but claims his part in the rebel movement was of an "educational nature." He denies ever having served the German government in any capacity.

Singh was released on $10,000 cash bail pending a hearing which will determine whether he shall be deported to India.

"That's that," asked Judge L. M. Toul, rather astonished.

HOUSE ORDERS U.S. FOOD SOLD TO CONSUMERS

WASHINGTON, July 30.—The war department today was confronted with the problem of disposing of $124,000,000 worth of canned meat and vegetables, by sale to the consumer direct.

This must be done in response to a resolution passed by the House, ordering sale of all surplus army food. The resolution authorized use of parcel post and in fact the entire postal system for food distribution. Secretary Baker said an extensive distribution system must be built up, requiring a large appropriation, if the supplies are to be hastily marketed.

The measure requesting the war department to sell its supplies was passed by a vote of 226 to 4. The war department claimed the resolution was unconstitutional, asserting that everything possible to dispose of the food was already being done. This was disputed by Republicans who insisted only half-hearted efforts had been made to market it. A sharp debate over this difference of opinion lasted in the House until a late hour.

Further probing into the nation's food situation began here today when a Senate committee started inquiry into the conditions in the District of Columbia. It was believed the field of this probe would be extended to the entire country.

Action on the federal trade commission's report to the President, charging the big packers with controlling the meat supply and fixing prices is already being taken by representatives of the department of justice. It was disclosed today.

C. P. Ames is studying the packing situation for Attorney-General Palmer, the department announced. Ames, special assistant to Palmer, in charge of all anti-trust action for the department.

VON LERSNER RETURNS

VERSAILES, July 30.—Baron Kurt von Lersner, head of the German peace delegation, has returned to Berlin. He was accompanied by five secretaries and one courier.

Just Once! Try Dodson's Liver Tone! Take No Calomel! Listen To Me!

If bilious, constipated, headachy or sick, I guarantee relief without taking dangerous calomel which sickens and salivates.

Stop using calomel! It makes you sick. Don't lose a day's work. If you feel lazy, sluggish, bilious or constipated, listen to me!

Calomel is mercury or quicksilver which causes necrosis of the bones. Calomel, when it comes into contact with your bile, crashes into it, breaking it up. This is when you feel that awful nausea and cramping. If you are "all knocked out," if your liver is torpid and bowels constipated or you have headache, dizziness, coated tongue, if breath is bad or stomach sour, just try a spoonful of harmless Dodson's Liver Tone.

Here's my guarantee—go to any drug store and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone for a few cents. Take a spoonful tonight, and if it doesn't straighten you right up and make you feel fine and vigorous by morning, I want you to go back to the store and get your money. Dodson's Liver Tone is destroying the sale of calomel because it is real liver medicine; entirely vegetable, therefore it can not salivate or make you sick.

I guarantee that one spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone will purify your sluggish liver to work and clean your bowels of that sour bile and constipated waste which is clogging your system and making you feel miserable. I guarantee that a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone will keep the entire family feeling fine for months. Give it to your children. It is harmless; doesn't grip or purge like a pleasant taste.—Advertisement.

MISS HARRIS'
BODY IS FOUND;
FRANCE HELD

PATERSON, N. J., July 20.—The body of Miss Mable Harris, 20, who mysteriously disappeared while canoeing on Pompton lake with her fiancé, Lester Decker, was found in Pompton river today, three-quarters of a mile below the dam over which Decker says the canoe was swept while he was asleep.

Edward Tours, a neighbor of Decker, recovered the body. The girl's mother became hysterical when she reached the river bank fifteen minutes later.

No trace was found of $50 in cash and a gold watch which Miss Harris had with her when she was last seen by relatives. The girl wore three rings, one of them a wedding ring, about which there is some mystery. This ring, according to her family, was worn for the first time by Miss Harris last Saturday, the day originally set for her wedding to Decker.

Walsh alleges that Mrs. Maroon is sane and competent to handle her property, valued at about $20,000. He defends himself in the petition as "a friend of the alleged incompetent."

PICKENS PLEADS FOR COLORED RACE

Dr. William Pickens, apostle of the colored people in the United States and vice-president of Morgan College in Baltimore, touched upon the Washington and Chicago race riots in an address last night before a large audience in the Municipal Auditorium.

"Colored people," he declared, "have never been known to resort to violence by the throwing of bombs or to have become anarchists and I believe they never will. Vindictiveness and indiscriminate attack will never intelligently settle our differences. When such a spirit is practiced on one side it naturally creates a like spirit on the other, with the result of riots, lynchings and trouble. Our internal weaknesses may become more dangerous than our external foes."

LYNCHINGS PROTECT NO ONE

"Lynching is not done to protect anyone," commented Dr. Pickens. "It is the outcome of a real race antipathy and is as liable to turn upon one man as another. Self defense is one thing, but mob violence never protects."

"For all time to come, the races must live here together. It is impossible to live with a man and not share his destiny. We can tell what kind of white people live in a community by the kind of colored people who are there. If part of us is down, all are down."

"We admit that the negro can commit crime, but the unfairness to him is that his crime is told and his good is not told enough."

Dr. Pickens taught the value of the colored man on the field and his loyalty to the United States in his response to every appeal of the government. He made an impassioned plea on behalf of the race for an opportunity to receive training and the avenues by which to become an acceptable American citizen.

"During the war the colored man felt more free because he was doing a great work instead of being worked," he said. "There is a vast difference between the two attitudes. He proved his capability."

HE'S AMERICAN PRODUCT

"Nine-tenths of the black people in this country have never had a fair chance for education. He was a slave but he is now 100 per cent an American citizen. He has been 200 years. Whatever is poor in him is American product. The awful lynchings that we are having are the worst things which come to us. Nine-tenths of the white and colored people do not really know the things that can never correct matters with violence."

WRIGHT SAYS IT SAVED HIS JOB

Was Dreadfully Run Down When He Started Taking Tanlac—His Wife Was Also Benefited.

J. A. Wright, a well-known motion picture merchant, employed by the Ince Studio in Hollywood, and living at 1323 Broadway, Los Angeles, and his wife, Mrs. Ella Wright, are now ardent champions of the merits of Tanlac. In a recent interview Mr. and Mrs. Wright made the following statements, which will be of interest to everyone who has had trouble finding a medicine to relieve them.

"I fully believe," said Mr. Wright, "that Tanlac has kept me from having to give up my work before because I began using the medicine my stomach was so out of fix that my food never seemed to do me any good. I had had back ache, all sorts of things, and I was so run-down and weak that I could scarcely do my work. I had been in this condition for a year or more and had almost reached the point of giving up."

"One day I was talking to a man who works with me now I felt that he was going to tell me something. He said, 'I have a wonderful thing for you. I took him at his word, got me some Tanlac, and the results are I am in as good condition as I ever was. My stomach is in the shape and I don't have that sick, grating, miserable feeling after eating. I am able to do my work every day without feeling tired. Tanlac is my friend, is the best medicine any one can take for a bad stomach and a run-down condition.'"

"For two years," said Mrs. Wright, "I suffered from stomach trouble, constipation and nervousness and nothing seemed to do me any good. I could not eat anything. I was so run-down and weak that I could scarcely do my work. I had been in this condition for a year or more and had almost reached the point of giving up."

"But, thank to Tanlac, things are altogether different with me now. I feel like a new man at night and get up in the morning thoroughly refreshed. My stomach never troubles me any more and I have had that tired feeling entirely. My nerves are in splendid condition and I have been built up and strengthened. My life and work is a pleasure to me. From now on I expect to always keep Tanlac in the house and I can sincerely recommend it to everyone."

Tanlac is sold in San Francisco and Oakland by The Owl Drug Company, Inc. Advertisement.

Testimonials like this are our recommendation.

Mrs. L. Lincoln, 512 Sixth avenue, Oakland, writes as follows:

"I have had stomach trouble for four years and have never found any relief that could help me until I commenced taking treatments of this herb. I have taken four weeks' treatment and must say I feel a wonderful improvement. The herb tea has helped my daughter also."

ATHLETIC MEET FOR FLEET BOYS

ALAMEDA, July 30.—The general Alameda fleet welcome committee will meet tonight in the council chambers to discuss plans for Alameda's participation in the fleet welcoming next month. Chairman C. L. Smith, who is also the executive committee member, will report on what has been carried out to date. Mayor Frank Ols, as ex-officio chairman, will preside at the meeting.

The plans, as now proposed, include an Alameda day, with athletic sports and aquatic contests and exhibitions at Neptune Beach. It is hoped that President Wilson and Secretary Daniels, as well as the high officers of the fleet, will be the guests of this city on Alameda day.

Alameda, by reason of its beaches and municipal athletic fields, is well equipped for the entertainment of large shore parties and the local committee is planning to have a four day's athletic meet in Alameda for the sailors.

It is believed probable that President Wilson will accept an invitation to speak at Neptune Beach on the day the Alameda naval base site is inspected by Secretary Daniels and the fleet commanders and naval base specialists.

The plans for a four-day athletic meet in this city have been submitted to the athletic officer of the fleet and representatives of the Alameda committee expects to confer with the athletic officer when the fleet reaches San Diego.

William F. Benedict, secretary of the fleet reception committee of San Francisco and assistant secretary to Mayor James Rolph, is expected to be present and address the Alameda committee meeting tonight.

Members of the executive committee, headed by Dr. David P. Barrows will meet at 7:30 o'clock with a general committee gathering a half-hour later.

SHIPYARD UNION SPLIT IN COURT

The withdrawal of two hundred members of Local 1534 Shipyard and Metal Trade Laborers' Union is the subject of a suit filed today in the Superior Court by remaining members, who seek to recover the property of the union. The property includes Liberty bonds in the amount of $3500, a note for a similar amount, cash on deposit in the sum of $550, an adding machine, typewriter, and all the books and paraphernalia of the union, together with the interest in the headquarters lease.

The complaint recites that the defendants withdrew and affiliated themselves with the International Longshoremen's Association, as Local No. 25, not affiliated with the American Federation of Labor. The plaintiffs are officers of the Shipyard and Metal Trades Union and the defendants are the officers of the local into which the withdrawing members organized themselves. Judge W. W. Harris granted a temporary restraining order to prevent the defendants from disposing of the property in controversy.

Many of the corner saloons in New York have quit and their locations are now vacant and advertised for rent. Some of the liquor places are still hanging on, trying to operate with soft drinks and await the final outcome of the present complex situation but a majority of the liquor dispensers talk as if their light had been lost permanently.

The Big Buck River fire in the Oroville Forest is being kept under control, it was stated today.

THIEF RELIEVES POLICE CAPTAIN OF HIS BADGE

When a "dip" can make away with a police captain's gold star, he's some "dip."

That is the amazing testimonial at the Central police station today, following the mysterious disappearance from his person of the gold star of Police Captain Thorvald Hagen of the Eastern station. Brown lost the star last night after riding to Melrose on a crowded street car. While the star is worth several hundred dollars, he prizes it mostly because it was the gift of his men, on the occasion of his becoming a captain.

The police are making special efforts to find the stolen badge.

THE FRENCH TREATY.

Now that the Senate has received from the President the text of the new Franco-American treaty, what will be its decision? How will it approach the subject of ratification, which the President has urged it to consent to?

There will inevitably be differences of opinion as to the wisdom of the United States entering into alliance with foreign powers which contemplates under textually described circumstances military action by this country in Europe. Some senators will oppose the treaty with honest energy and from sincere motives. Others will let politics be their guide. It is to be hoped, however, that the Senate will examine the treaty in a spirit free of partisanship and with the single purpose to serve the interest and the obligations of their country.

The treaty was signed by the President in Paris immediately after Germany had accepted the Versailles peace treaty. It provides that in case France is attacked by Germany the United States will immediately go to the aid of France in repelling the invader. An identical agreement has been concluded between France and Great Britain.

Considered in isolation from American traditions and precedent and without any selfish thought or fear of the consequences, the purpose of the treaty is praiseworthy. It provides a safeguard against a breaking of the world's peace from the very quarter in which the peace was broken five years ago. The treaty is not a secret covenant. It is an open and public notice that the principal Allied countries do not yet trust Germany and do not propose to be unprepared against fresh aggression on the part of Germany.

France, of course, sought these treaties with the United States and Great Britain. They are supplemental to the Allied agreement on the peace conference for Germany. France cannot forget the menace that so long existed across the Rhine, nor believe that it has yet been eradicated. Premier Clemenceau at first urged that France be permitted to occupy all the region west of the Rhine and fortify and garrison the district. Marshal Foch insisted upon this point to the very last and held that France could not be safe without such precaution.

Clemenceau yielded when promised assistance from Great Britain and America in case of future German aggression. He was willing that German sovereignty and nationality continue west of the Rhine if made compatible with France's safety. The treaties represent the promise President Wilson and Premier Lloyd George made to Clemenceau in order to secure a modification of the original French demands.

The British and American commissioners doubtless believed that to hand the Rhine provinces over to France would be to constitute a standing provocation to war and this they wanted to avoid. They believed that the existence of a defensive alliance between France, England and America would be sufficient to deter Germany from renewing the war. This view is supported by good reasoning and it is unlikely that this country will ever be called upon to discharge its obligations under the treaty.

But after all the above and much more favorable to the special treaty is said, there remain the very strongest of considerations against the United States entering into a special military alliance with any foreign country.

These do not imply lack of understanding of France's position, nor repudiation of our friendship for the French people or disinclination to accept the obligations of that friendship, nor blindness to the fact that any assault upon France by Germany would also menace the peace and safety of this country. Nor do they arise exclusively out of a slavish affection for past traditions and precedent.

They are to be based on the principle that special alliances are as a rule prejudicial to the peace of the world, and as such are to be avoided. Such an alliance as is forecast in the new treaties would be entirely defensive and wholly righteous. But who can say that it would not invite other powers to form similar alliances for altogether different objects? The political history of Europe is in the main a history of alliances and if all have not provoked war all have failed to prevent war.

It has been argued by the proponents of the League of Nations that the day of special alliances and balances of power has passed; that all nations were to enter into an alliance to prevent acts of aggression and consequent war.

But, as THE TRIBUNE has previously pointed out, these assurances are not to be relied upon in every case, a fact which the new treaties between France, England and the United States demonstrate. The enmities and fears of the past five years will endure for a long time and there must be other devices to compose them than the League of Nations.

The treaties indicate a belief that the German menace has not been eliminated and is still dangerous. If so, provision against it should be maintained, but it is to be hoped that some other means than a European-American alliance, however righteous and wise that alliance may be, of discharging this country's duty to maintain defense and protection can be found. If there is no other way, the Senate ought to ratify the treaty. But to carefully and calmly examine the facts and the necessities is the Senate's privilege and obligation.

A HIGHER TAX RATE.

The commissioner of finance and revenue has prepared a tentative estimate of the budget for the ensuing fiscal year in which he shows that the Oakland city tax rate will be around $2.70 per $100, as against a rate of $1.85 last year. This would be an increase of 85 cents, or about 46 percent.

It is a large increase and demands the most serious attention on the part of the city council and the people. There are some sound and indisputable reasons for raising the tax rate, reasons over which the city council will have no control.

Among the new requirements of revenue is the increase in the salaries of the firemen and policemen and the cost of maintaining the two-platoon system in the fire department. Both these increases were voted by the people at popular elections (at which the majority of the voters of the city negligently failed to vote). The two items call for about $335,000 additional revenue a year.

There must also be an increase in the tax rate to make up for the loss of revenue from saloon licenses, a matter over which the city council has no choice. The school teachers are asking for an increase in their salaries; there is a large popular sentiment in favor of such increase, which appears to be necessary if the schools are to retain the services of the most competent teachers, and the council can hardly fail to provide more money for salaries. The finance commissioner has estimated that $225,000 will be required for this purpose, or a tax rate increase of 15 cents.

Other expenditures are necessary if the city government is to discharge its duty satisfactorily, such as harbor improvements, new streets and sewers. Some of these expenditures should have been made long ago, and would have been if the city administration had not considered it of first importance to keep campaign pledges until the immediate need of pledges had passed. The improvements could only be evaded temporarily and now they must be financed at a time when other unavoidable expenditures face the city.

A prospective increase of 46 percent in the tax rate in a single year is a serious admonition to practice every economy possible. The community should not suffer through penuriousness or evasion of duty—as it has done in the past—but it should be remembered that a high tax rate is no advantage to a city; especially a city that is inviting capital to invest and hoping for more new industries.

The council is plainly under strict obligation to keep the tax rate as low as possible, not by eliminating or postponing essential public projects and repudiating official duties, but by strict economy and intelligent efficiency. The creation of new municipal offices especially might be avoided at this time.

A resolution has been introduced in Congress providing for a special committee to visit the Pacific coast and see how it is that large numbers of Japanese are permitted to slip into the country, despite the exclusion act and other regulations. This would not seem to be the main point. What ought to be done is to verify the truth of the charges that illegal entrance of Asiatics is being effected, and if they are true, then to put a stop to the practice forthwith. There is no necessity of waiting for a congressional committee to find out how the laws are evaded.

The Berkeley city council has had a mild quarrel over the question of keeping the city clean of weeds in vacant lots. Other cities often let the weeds grow rather than go to the trouble of compelling their eradication. In the past Berkeley has been useful as a good example for other communities, and it is to be hoped that its splendid policy will not be abandoned. Whatever method of procedure is adopted, the council ought to stand solidly against weeds and fire and disease dangers.

A crime expert at the University of California says typewriters have individuality and the product of each machine can be identified. Perhaps they have individuality, but they don't exhibit it without physical effort on the part of someone, and there are typists whose errors would obscure the individuality of any self-respecting machine.

NOTES and COMMENT

Some interesting things are coming out regarding the national administration's lenient attitude toward Carranza in the earlier stages of his regime. It has been testified before a Congressional committee that "Lino" Steffens misled the President into believing that Carranza was the Mexican people's champion. It is a disclosure, indeed, that Steffens had the presidential ear so intimately.

Mr. Ford has been vindicated to an extent. It was Jane Addams who said that the word "murderer" should be embroidered on the breast of every soldier. Ford only said "yes" when this observation was reported to him. He is entitled to this correction.

The proverbial cache of women would hardly be equal to the concealment of a bolt of cloth, yet it puzzled an Oakland department store where else such missing merchandise could have been concealed. The stocking has been known to hide bulky objects.

The gasoline oil station appears to be a vulnerable point of attack for the urban bandit. Its openness, late hours and sometimes loneliness afford the modern Dick Turpin their opportunity. Room here for inventive genius to provide a plan to discourage this new outgrowth.

It appears that the American people are in favor of "a" league of nations, but it is not so clear that they favor "the" league to the extent of giving it a national endorsement. That remains to be seen.

The first intimation that any possibility that bonds of the late Southern Confederacy, hypothesized in Europe long years ago, would be offered as offset against obligations incurred in the war is Senator Sherman's bill definitely barring any such proceeding. It will be news, indeed, that an act of Congress is considered necessary as a safeguard in such a situation. It was supposed that all danger of any recognition of Confederate obligations was long passed.

Offering the former kaiser a million to star in a film is peculiarly American—and thrifty. A Los Angeles film baron does it and wants President Wilson to act as intermediary. Not only is the offer American and thrifty, but it may be said to be also Los Angeles.

The passing of the dreadnought through the Panama canal is a test that demonstrates the stability of the great waterway. That it will withstand the passage of any craft is now assured. Not much attention has been given during the last five years to this great ditch, but now we can take account and understand that it comes up to specifications.

Since the engineman "Bullfrog" was bestowed, nothing has so illustrated the tendency to select strange names for mining camps as "Caculus," which is that fastened on the newest discovery. The story of finding a nineteen-pound chunk of silver there has started a rush demonstrating that the day of the mining stampede is not over.

It is not to be said, perhaps, that the reason that was necessary to be of the clutches of American bait is the last straw, but it is likely to be one of the weights that are upsetting the scales. American patience is very near the limit of its strain.

SPIRIT OF THE STATE PRESS

The Stockton Independent has an account of the arrest in that city of George Tinnin, claimed as a resident of Calaveras county, who was taken in by a constable while driving an automobile in an alleged intoxicated condition, his pockets yielded a bottle of whiskey and $4000 in money. The man is unknown here and no such name appears on the Great Register. As Calaveras men who drive about in automobiles with $4000 in their pockets are rather scarce, we are inclined to think the independent is off on its geography.—Calaveras Prospect.

In two weeks the open season for deer will be inaugurated in some districts and its inauguration will be marked by the usual killing of hunters by other hunters, mistaking them for game. The California game laws provide for the punishment of a hunter who kills a deer without horns of with but one point on its antlers, but neither the game laws nor any other law deals properly with the hunter who shoots his companion, provided, of course, it is shown that the shooting is accidental.—Bakersfield California.

It is queer, but it is a fact that seasoned advertisers think more of the circulation gained by the merit of a newspaper than of a circulation secured by the modification of the lottery plan. In other words, they think that their advertisements are more likely to be seen, read and acted upon by people looking for information than by people looking for "lucky" numbers.—Woodland Democrat.

There has never been a season in the Imperial Valley when conditions regarding bottom appeared so splendid. All over the valley there are growths of cotton more luxuriant than for many seasons past. There has not been the usual cry for water. Confidence has been restored, and the result to be expected is unprecedented prosperity.—Holtville Tribune.

Japanese women usually have large families. In fact, the reports of the State Board of Health show that the Japanese births in the last ten years have increased 3000 percent. The same authority reports that the white births have decreased about 9 percent. At this rate the Orientalization of California will be an accomplished fact before many years unless some action is taken to check this "passive invasion."—Santa Cruz Sentinel.

"METHOD IN HIS MADNESS"

THE COST OF SHIPBUILDING

To the Editor of The Tribune:

I have just read in the July issue of "Sea Power" a letter sent to James W. Good, Chairman of the House Committee on Appropriations, June 4, 1919, from Chairman J. N. Hurley, of the U. S. Shipping Board, presenting, as he said, "an outline of our shipping problem as a whole."

Thinking that it may interest others to know what the Board has accomplished I have taken the liberty of sending you a few selections from the letter, as follows:

Mr. Hurley says that "during the nineteen months in which our country was actively engaged in the war, the United States Shipping Board Emergency Fleet Corporation expanded the shipbuilding capacity of the United States from an unimportant position among the world's producers of ocean-going tonnage, to amount authorized by Congress."

Appropriated and will expend $2,625,451,000
Additional appropriation required for credit for administration 1.75% of total amount appropriated and requested. Credit for net cost of shipyard development, housing and transportation 12.75% of total amount appropriated and requested.
Credit for cancelling ship contracts.

THE HEPATICA QUEST.

So say ye yea or nay—
If, that day in the world of faraway,
Thy early woodland quest were truly blest
With frail hepatica's pale and lilac crest—
Wooded and won by the warm woodland wind, caressed—
Within its lowly, lone sequestered nest
Or sleeping still, close keeping to its breast
The marvel of its resurrection, rest,
Anew our faith to test—His behest.
—Mary Havel Stoddard in Long Island Life.

The accompanying table shows that the actual cost to the Government of the ships built and to be built, will average $180 per deadweight ton.

HAGAN RULING
ON INSURANCE
TO BE TESTED

That the police department will contest the ruling of City Attorney H. L. Hagan, by which Mrs. George Greene, wife of the late Oakland policeman, is denied her $1000 pension, was announced today by Chief of Police J. F. Lynch.

The police hold that the pension is in the nature of insurance. Each policeman is assessed two dollars a month for the pension fund, and Greene was assessed this sum while on the three months' temporary retirement that Hagan says makes his term in the service only nine years and nine months instead of ten years.

"The pension is an insurance system, the men paying dues or premiums, and we hold that it is contingent on membership in the department and not on performance of work," said Lynch. "In other words, as long as a man is a member of the department he pays his premiums and under the law we believe is entitled to his insurance benefits. In this case the man was a member of the department more than ten years, and had paid his premiums, which makes him eligible to receive the full benefits of the insurance. The Los Angeles courts so ruled in a similar case, and there are many insurance decisions that bear out this contention."

The police protective association attorneys will probably be asked to bring mandamus proceedings on the city auditor to pay the insurance, the police say.

Greene was injured while on duty, and as a result became ill. He retired temporarily during his illness, and later died. He had been a member of the department ten years, but Hagan rules that the three months' time of his illness should be deducted, this making his term of service on regular duty nine years and nine months. He therefore ruled that the pension should not be paid. Greene's widow is storing up protest from the police and fire departments, and today preparations were made to test the case.

CYCLOPS SUNK BY BOMB IS BELIEF

When the United States collier Cyclops loaded for the last time before the sea swallowed her, she took on her cargo at a port that was crowded with interned Germans.

What more likely than that the Hun, suggested a time-bomb on board the American craft?

Isn't that the answer to the appalling mystery of the sea tragedy that brought despair to so many American homes?

At least it is the theory of a navy man, Lieutenant W. C. Tooe, former assistant general secretary of the Oakland Y. M. C. A., who has returned here after continuous service with the American fleet since the opening of the war.

Lieut. Tooe was on the Pueblo, formerly flagship of the Pacific squadron. His ship was in the port of Bahia, Brazil, when the Cyclops loaded magnesite ore there just before the trip on which she vanished. In Bahia at the time there were interned the crews of a German cruiser, three German merchant ships and two Austrian craft, said Tooe. He believes that they were able to smuggle a German into the ranks of the ship's loaders or in some other way placed a time-bomb in the Cyclops' hold.

The Pueblo had many exciting experiences. She took up the hunt for the raider Wolf and was close to her when the Wolf's hydroplane scout sighted her and the vessel was able to make a get-away.

Afterwards the Pueblo went to the Atlantic and was in convoy work. Seven trips were made to England and France. Encounters were had with seven submarines.

PEACHES, PEARS
ARE CONDEMNED

More than 100 boxes of peaches and pears were condemned in the local wholesale market this morning by Deputy County Horticultural Commissioner D. P. Macdonald, who says the fruit was poorly packed and wormy. Altogether more than 800 packages of fruit and vegetables have been condemned by the deputy horticultural commissioner during the last ten days as unfit for human consumption.

All consignments are watched very closely and packers and dealers who are found guilty of violation of the provisions of the state standardization law will be prosecuted, Macdonald says.

It is announced by County Horticultural Commissioner Fred Seuberg that there is no desire to hamper the local industry, but that the public must and will be protected against deception and fraud on the part of unscrupulous packers and handlers of fruits and vegetables.

Further, Seuberg says that he wants it distinctly understood that it matters not how prominent the individual or firm may be that resorts to misrepresentation, legal action will be taken to protect the public.

MISS NATALIE ORMSBY

Clever Young Girl Discovered
When She Volunteered in Loan Drive

"I'm just homesick for my profession," sighs Miss Natalie Ormsby, seven years old and a daughter of Mrs. Edgar L. Ormsby, woman director for Alameda county, Liberty Loan, and prominent clubwoman.

"I'm going to be a star."

Miss Ormsby has already been a star. She just concluded a two-weeks' engagement in Los Angeles with Miss Marjorie Rabinowitz, returning to Oakland this week with her mother, her brother Lionel, and sister Hortense. The clever youngster was discovered when she volunteered as a Liberty Loan speaker.

She made her dramatic debut in "Peter Ibbotson" and liked the taste of popularity. It was after she appeared at the Curran theater in San Francisco that a contract to appear in Los Angeles in "The Eyes of Youth" was awarded to her.

"How can she," asked Mrs. Ormsby, "I have two other children and I can't leave them."

"There's a place for them, too," declared the management and that is how the Ormsby family was organized and Lionel and Hortense shared the honors for two weeks with their sister. Lionel does not like the theater but he made a real hit.

The Ormsby juveniles are at home with their mother. But Miss Natalie for all her seven years has two flattering offers to go south and be a real movie queen.

Naughty Shimmie
Now Taboo in L. A.

LOS ANGELES, July 30.—The "shimmie" and "cheek to cheek" dances heretofore will not be tolerated in select Los Angeles clubs.

These dances are "unrefined," according to an edict issued by the Los Angeles Athletic Club and must not be attempted at the organization's social functions. Other clubs are following suit.

In Peace and War Use
ALLEN'S FOOT-EASE

A prominent British Government official, in a speech about the war to a large body of business men in N. Y. City recently said, "After the tired soldier has returned from a 12 mile tramp, with swollen and aching feet, is there a mother, who, if she knew, would not go out and get some Foot-Ease to send to her boy?"

People everywhere should realize the comfort derived from Allen's Foot-Ease, the antiseptic, healing powder to be shaken into the shoes. It takes the friction from the shoe and gives instant relief to tired, aching, swollen, tender feet, corns, bunions, blisters and callouses.

The Plattsburg Camp Manual advises all men in training to shake Foot-Ease in their shoes each morning. Try it yourself and if you have a son, brother or friend in the army or navy, send him a box of Foot-Ease. Sold by drug and dry goods stores everywhere.

BANDITS ROB
RESTAURANT
IN DAYLIGHT

SAN FRANCISCO, July 30.—Suhr's restaurant at Turk and Market streets was the scene of a daylight holdup this morning. The second which has occurred there within the past six months. Three men entered the place, bound and gagged the three employees and escaped with $57, the contents of the cash register.

The bandits walked in and ordered food while the place was cleared of other persons, and suddenly all three drew revolvers, and each selecting one of the employees James Tucker, Harry Carlyle and Al Hin—forced them into the basement where they were bound and gagged. The bandits then returned to the restaurant floor and robbed the cash register.

Over $4,000 for $75 Paintings
Court Marvels at "Easy Money"

After a bitter, long-drawn controversy, the Schmidt-Russell "picture suit," on trial before Judge T. W. Harris, came to a conclusion late yesterday when judgments were given chiefly in favor of David Russell, Oakland painter, sued by H. H. Schmidt to recover possession of a dozen canvases. Schmidt received judgment for two paintings valued by experts at $75, and the others were awarded to Russell.

It was admitted by the court that Schmidt bought the materials for the two paintings, but the court held that he contributed chiefly to the maintenance not only of Russell during the painting, but to the entire household, comprising in its membership Mrs. Ella Miller and Mrs. Edith Black Mecom, mediums, who saw spirits of people flitting about the courtroom during the trial, according to their testimony.

But the court held that, in spite of this fact, Schmidt never proved that he was entitled to the pictures when they were done. Russell said that Schmidt agreed to pay for them according to their value when they were finished. After they were nearly done trouble developed between the painter and his backer, and Schmidt took possession of the paintings on revolving credit.

He immediately put them on a train and sent them to Michigan, from where he was ordered by the court to return them, by express, in order that they could be hung on display in court for artists to appraise.

The two pictures awarded to Schmidt, one a redwood scene and the other a landscape, were proved to have been presented to him as presents from Mrs. Miller.

PICTURES COST OVER $4,000.—The two pictures worth $75, each, Schmidt, according to the evidence, $3916 before the lawsuit started. The costs of the trial, according to the judgment, falls to him to pay, adding some few hundred dollars, and in addition he must pay his own attorney for a week's work, besides the fees of the half dozen expert painters.

"I never saw a man of your age and experience who was so easily separated from his money," observed Judge Harris while giving judgment in the case.

"But on the other hand, when it comes down to a proposition of separating a man and his money, Mrs. Miller has it reduced to a fine and exact science."

The judge expressed amazement that Schmidt could have been prevailed upon to remain in the household occupied by Russell, Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Mecom for so long under the circumstances. He said, however, that Schmidt must have liked it there, and that he was entitled to pay for the privileges of a home that was evidently congenial. The receipts bills showed that he had during the progress of the paintings paid out hundreds of dollars for rent, fuel, light, groceries, meat and pleasures.

BEHELD IN SPIRITS.—It was during this time, stretching over a period of years, that he invested some $145,000 in the Trinity Asbestos Mining Company, according to the evidence of records in the court, in which Mrs. Mecom, Mrs. Miller and others were principal shareholders. Recently he secured judgment against the company for $39,000 and an execution by which he acquired the stock. Mrs. Miller, a clairvoyant, during all these years consulted her spirit guides and was told that the mine and the pictures and everything was coming out wonderfully in the end. Schmidt admitted that he believed the spirits.

In reply to the relevant suit Russell valued the canvases at $16,000. William H. Ketchum, an art expert, whose appraisal was accepted by the court in determining the values, valued the entire group of canvases at $4712. The amount represented approximately the cost of the materials.

When judgment was spoken in favor of the artist he sat with bowed head as if he experienced a realization of love's labor lost. Schmidt's attorney assured him that the $475 would not be paid for the paintings, but instead they would be returned to the studio.

BEER DEALERS ASK
FEDERAL LICENSE

Four hundred dealers, wholesale and retail, who are selling 2.75 per cent beer, have filed application with Deputy Collector Charles Preble of Oakland for federal licenses, in order that they may be protected should any complications arise through license matters. The government agents, in issuing the licenses, are warning dealers that these do not grant immunity from prosecution in case the courts decide that "two and three-quarters" beer is intoxicating. At the same time while selling such beverage the license is compulsory.

The licenses do not grant the privilege of selling whisky, wine or any liquor banned under the federal war-time prohibition act.

The woman first took Dutra's wallet from a hip pocket. Dutra caught her in the act and protested. They parleyed for a moment, and the woman offered to return him the wallet with $50.

Dutra was not satisfied. The woman then drew a knife and compelled Dutra to release her. She fled down a dark alleyway.
